

PENDRAGON THE VOYAGER (Version Hurricane)

Intro clavier + guitar sèche 4 mesures Em Em7 C C

Em7 C

Long winding road where will you lead me?

Em7 C

As far west as man can go before he starts heading east

Em7 C

San Francisco, but where from there?

Em7

Out on the ocean where the dreamers go

C

Where the moonlight dolphins play

Am

Cause I know where my spirit's free

G D

I know where my destiny takes me

Am

I know where my spirit's free

G D C

Into the heart of America

G D C

Into the arms of a new world

G D C G

Into the heart of a new world dream, and free

< arpèges seuls 10 mesures G G C C G G C C G G et Apège continue sur chant

C G

And Thursday's child has got a long, long way to go

C G

And Thursday's child has got a long, long way to go

C G D C

And Thursday's child has got a long, long way to go – ooooo

Transition 4 temps de guitare de JC avant harmonica

Solo harmonica Em7 Em7 C C (x2)

Em7

For those who seek shall be those who find

C

To push back the boundaries forever for mankind

Em7

The boy who made his mark in the world today

C

So spread your wings and fly away

Em7

Copper green Victorian looking out to sea

C

The first footsteps in India is where my ship takes me

Am

G

D

I'm a wandering stranger just trying to find some answers for me

Am

I know where my spirit's free

G D C

Into the heart of America

G D C

Into the arms of a new world

G D C G

Into the heart of a new world dream... And free

Solo Guitare sur Em7 C

<Silence, reprise JC vocal seul >

I put my hand to my head and I look to the sea and think

G

Thursday's child has got a long long way to go